

November 2013 update

We hope you were able to take a tour of our new school in August. But if you haven't been inside the school yet, there will be an excellent opportunity to view the school at the Ribbon Cutting and Dedication ceremony, which will be held on Wednesday, November 27, at 4:00 P.M. This date was chosen in order to allow the maximum number of alumni, municipal and state officials, students, staff, residents and other interested persons to attend.

The afternoon of November 27 will kick off with the Homecoming float parade at Noon. Promptly at 4:00 P.M., the program will begin in the Performing Arts Center. A variety of state and local individuals, many of whom have been closely involved in the building project, will be invited to attend. Three areas in the school will be dedicated at this time – the Dr. Judith A. Riordan Performing Arts Center, the Anne Kenneally Hynes Library, and the George C. McCabe, Jr. Track. Once that ceremony has concluded, the official ribbon cutting will take place outside the front of the building.

After the formal program, attendees will be invited to walk around the building and enjoy refreshments in the cafeteria. Please join the celebration on November 27 and spread the word that everyone is welcome.

Sincerely,
The School Building Committee

Upcoming meetings: November 4 and November 12 at 6:00 PM in the JSHS conference room.
